No. 6883.

Simla, the 7th August 1914.

The following Royal Proclamation setting forth the Law and Policy with regard to Trading with the Enemy, is published for general infomation:-

By the King.

A Proclamation.

George R.I.

Whereas a state of war exists between Us and the German -- Emperor; and whereas it is contrary to law for any person resident, carrying on business, or being in Our Dominions to trade or have any commercial intercourse with any person resident, carrying on business, or being in the German Empire without Our permission:

And whereas it is therefore expedient and necessary to warn all persons resident, carrying on business, or being in Our Dominions of their duties and obligations towards Us, Our Crown, and Government:

Now, therefore, We have thought fit, by and with the advice of Our Privy Council, to issue this Our Royal Proclamation, and We do hereby warn all persons resident, carrying on business, or being in Our Dominions:

Not to supply to or obtain from the German Empire, any goods wares, or merchandise or to supply to or obtain the same from any person resident, carrying on business, or being therein, nor to supply to or obtain from any person any goods, wares or merchandise for or by any way of transmission to or from the German Empire, or to or from any person resident, carrying on business, or being therein, nor to trade in or carry any goods, wares, or merchandise destined for or coming from the German Empire, or for or from any person resident, carrying on business, or being therein.

Not to permit any British ship to leave for, enter, or communicate with any port or place in the German Empire:

Nor to make or enter into any new marine, life, fire or other policy or contract of insurance with or for the benefit of any person resident, carrying on business, or being in the German Empire, nor under any existing policy or contract of insurance to make any payment to or for the benefit of any such person in respect of any loss due to the belligerent action of His Majesty's forces or of those of any Ally of His Majesty:

Nor to enter into any new commercial financial, or other contract or obligation with or for the benefit of any person resident, carrying on business, or being in the German Empire:

And We do hereby further warn all persons that whoever in contravention of the law shall commit, aid, or abet any of the aforesaid acts will be liable to such penalties as the law provides:

And We hereby declare that any transaction to, with, of for the benefit of any person resident, carrying on business, or being in the German Empire, which are not treasonable and are not for the time being expressly prohibited by Us either by virtue of this Proclamation or otherwise, and which but for the Existence of the state of war aforesaid would be lawful, are hereby permitted:

And We hereby declare that the expression "person" in this -- Proclamation shall include any body of persons corporate or unincorporate, and that where any person has or had an interest in houses or branches of business in some other country as well as in Our -- Dominions, this Proclamation shall not apply to the trading or -- commercial intercourse carried on by such person solely from or by such houses or branches of business in such other country.

Given at Our Court at Buckingham Palace this fifth day of -- August in the year of Our Lord one thousand nine hundred and fourteen, and in the fifth year of Our Reign.

God save the King."
